This beautiful Queen Anne house, with grounds originally landscaped by “Capability” Brown, is believed to be one of only two remaining houses that combine the work of the architect William Talman and the artist Louis Laguerre.

The magnificent Shell Room, with Laguerre ceiling, and the Entrance Hall, with Laguerre ceiling and mural, are available for wedding receptions for up to 36 seated or 60 for stand-up canapés receptions on Saturday or Sundays.

This is an elegant venue suitable for a wedding reception without dancing.

Exclusive Use Location Fee
Saturdays	from £750
Sundays	from £850
